IN THE COURT OF THE CHIEF JUDGE OF MYSORE.

Civil Side.

Rule of Practice No. 37, dated 22*nd May* 1882.

It having come to the notice of the Chief Judge that inconvenience to the public service is sometimes caused by commissions for local investigations and other purposes being issued by the Civil Courts to subordinate Revenue and other officials without communication with the official superiors of the persons commissioned, the following Rule is issued by virtue of the power conferred by Section 652 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act X of 1877).

Whenever a Civil Court desires to issue a commission to any subordinate public servant for any of the purposes specified in Sections 392, 394 and 396 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Court shall ascertain from the official superior of the public servant concerned, whether any objection, such as inconvenience to the public service, or other reasonable cause exists to the issue of the commission to such public servant. If any such objection is stated to exist, the Court shall refrain from appointing the public servant.
